

1 The weather is going to be all weekend.

WEATHER FORECAST

This is going to be a weekend of unexpected things. We will witness everything from bright sunshine to heavy snow.

On Friday, there will be strong winds followed by heavy rain in the south of Poland. It's going to be wet and windy in the north.

Saturday morning will be OK with sunny spells in the entire Poland. In the afternoon there will be showers in the east.

Sunday is going to be good day for staying at home. There are going to be strong winds and snowstorms everywhere. In the afternoon there will be heavy rain which will last all day. This may lead to floods in many parts of southern Poland.

A changeable

B the same

C beautiful

D while

2 A: Who are you waiting ?

B: Tomek.

A at

B for

C in

D on

3 Mr. Smith, my English teacher has me a lot.

A taught

B teached

C taught

D thought

4 John to the theatre. He'll be home in three hours.

A has gone

B has went

C has been

D have been

5 Tomasz Kamel, the famous TV presenter was standing on the pavement four tourists.

A between

B among

C over

D under

6 We haven't been on holiday

A last year

B for a year

C exhausted

D indifferent

7 I broke my mum's favourite vase yesterday. She was

A cross

B hungry

C exhausted

D indifferent

8 A: I'm sorry there aren't any sweets left.

B:

A Nevermind.

B How funny.

C Are there right?

D What a silly thing.

9 I arrived at the concert; no one was there.

A late

B early

C lately

D earlily

10 Which sentence is correct?

A He was breaking his leg while he was playing football.

B He was breaking his leg while he played football.

C He broke his leg when he was playing football.

D He broke his leg while he was playing football.

11 This soup tastes really

A well

B goodly

C badly

D good

12 You wear them when it's hot and you walk on the beach. What are they?

A boots

B stilettos

C wellingtons

D flip-flops

13 A: This hat looks very nice on you.

B: Do you think so? I it then.

A am buying

B will buy

C am going to buy

D won't buy

14 The music is too loud. Please, turn it

A up

B down

C on

D off

15 If you need very small pieces of onion you must it.

A cut

B grate

C slice

D chop

16 A: Would you like bread?

B: Yes, I'll have slice.

A a / a

B any / a

C some / some

D some / a

17 There is sugar in the cupboard. I must go to the shop.

A few

B a few

C little

D much

18 Bread, cereal and pasta are

A dairy products

B fat

C carbohydrates

D proteins

19 People generally can't stand in their gardens.

A lawns

B hedges

C weeds

D bushes

20 Call me later,

A won't you?

B don't you?

C will you?

D do you?